DR. JOHN MIN JOINS PAYMENT METRICS LLC AS PARTNER

Burke, VA – Payment Metrics LLC announces that John Min, PhD has become an equity partner. Dr. Min has a PhD in Economics and has extensive sales, sales management, and training expertise in the foreign exchange (FX) and cross-border payment industry. Over the past few months, he has played a central role at Payment Metrics in the development of the most sophisticated financial sales training program in the market today that can be tailored to the need of each client. Some of the largest financial institutions including money center banks and money service businesses use Payment Metrics to train their sales representatives to boost performance and improve their bottom line. Payment Metrics has based its training programs out of the new training facility on the Northern Virginia Community College campus in Arlington, VA.

Payment Metrics General Partner John Green commented, “John Min brings a wealth of sales experience and expertise to Payment Metrics. It is a perfect fit to have him on board as a partner.” Dr. Min stated, “I am very pleased to be joining Payment Metrics. The sales consultation and training program we have developed at Payment Metrics is based on years of behavioral science research that has been successfully tested in the market place. The program is truly a one-of-a-kind.”
